

33 of Fortune's® “100 Best Companies to Work For in America” Offer Hyatt Legal Plans

February 9, 2010 – Thirty-three of the “100 Best Companies to Work For in America,” offer a Hyatt Legal plan. Hyatt sponsors on this list include American Express, FedEx and Google. The list is published annually by Fortune.

Companies on this list recognize that a robust benefits package improves the company’s positioning when recruiting and retaining talent. Many of these companies also understand that legal plans are an important part of the benefits mix.

Group legal plans have become a well-established, popular option in employer-sponsored benefit programs. They provide affordable access to attorneys and cover the most frequently needed, personal legal matters. In today’s economy, they are especially valuable since many employees have an increased need for help with matters such as debt collection defense, foreclosure, refinancing, bankruptcy, lease negotiations and eviction defense. Serving 1,200 sponsors nationwide, Hyatt Legal Plans is the market leader.
